

IGC – International Gerontology Colloquium 2011

of the ISAS – The International Society of Ageing Sciences

at the University of Hall in Tyrol/Austria

19.-20.05.2011, SR Campus

Schedule:

Thursday, 19.05.2011

16:00	Arrival and reception
	Welcoming	Prof. Dr. Bernd Seeberger / UMIT-Institute for gerontology and demographic development
	Greeting by the university	Rector Prof. Dr. Christa Them / UMIT-University Hall, Tyrol
16:30-17:00	Economic-gerontological aspects in the aging society (habilitation project)	Prof. Dr. Norbert Meiners / FHWT Vechta, Germany
17:15-18:45	Creativity in old age	Prof. Dr. Helmut Bachmaier / University Konstanz, Germany
from 19:00	Joint dinner

Friday, 20.05.2011

09:00-09:45	The development of Gerontology in Turkey	Prof. Dr. Ismail Tufan / Akdeniz Üniversitesi Antalya, Turkey
10:00-10:30	Organization ethics in elderly care – a tension between technology and art (habilitation project)	Dr. Matthias Walter
10:45-11:30	Physical fitness and learning in old age	Prof. Dr. Brigitte Stemmer / Université de Montréal, Canada
11:45-12:15	Preventive senior citizens counselling in Tyrol (habilitation project)	Dr. Eva Schulc / UMIT-Institute for gerontology and demographic development
12:15-13:30	Lunch break
13:30-14:00	Evaluation of the service offerings of a social center (habilitation project)	Dr. Gerhard Müller / UMIT-Institute for nursing science, Vienna
14:15-15:00	Risks and opportunities of old age: Understanding the nature of living well	Prof. Dr. Terence Seedsman / Victoria University Melbourne, Australia
15:15-15:45	Intergenerational equity in philosophical aspects (habilitation project)	Dr. Esfandiar Tabari
16:00-16:30	Leading discipline nursing science	Prof. Dr. Christa Them / UMIT-University Hall, Tyrol
16:30	Conclusion	Prof. Dr. Bernd Seeberger / UMIT-Institute for gerontology and demographic development

Prof. Dr. Bernd Seeberger / currently Chief Coordinator of ISAS

GERONTOLOGICA
Interdisciplinary Journal of Aging Sciences
ISAS - The International Society of Aging Sciences

Colloquium language: german/english